Experience

I have taken part in a range of live briefs set by tutors at Staffordshire University, one such project was to promote the Art, Design and Media degree exhibition. My design was chosen as one of the finalists to be presented to the Dean of the university.

I also entered my illustration work to competitions including MPA Roses and Iris Design Agency. My work was commended by the Roses judges.

I have visited various professional studios and attended the D&AD Design symposium in Liverpool and Plus in Birmingham. These conferences gave me an insight into the design industry.
